Case No: 19-CV-5803-SJF-AYS

Plaintiff: Windward Bora LLC- Second mortgage

DEAR JUDGE SANDRA FEUERSTEIN,

We are writing to you about an upcoming auction happening on our referenced house. The auction is set to take place on January 12, 2021. We were not made aware of an upcoming auction nor foreclosure nor a transfer in our loan. We never received a summons and complaint because we don't live at the referenced property. We have not had time nor finances to hire an attorney to address the issue since we are just made aware of this upcoming auction.

Our deed was just stolen by our non-paying tenant who happened to be our CPA in filing taxes. She forged our signatures and signed our deed over to herself as well as obtained car loans in our names. We want to hire an attorney to return our deed to us as well as get an attorney to help us address the upcoming foreclosure. I have also sent this same notice to Margolin and Weinreb the plaintiff's attorney who is Alyssa Kapner for Winward Bora LLC. I am asking all parties to work with us since we have not been properly served.

It is with a grieving heart that we implore the court to hear out our request for an emergency motion to re-open our case of a foreclosure happening and a possible reverse judgement. We currently have no finances to afford a foreclosure attorney to represent us against windward bora LLC. But hope to get one soon.

Sincerely,

Rick Rampersad
